

Privacy Policy

Cornet Technology, Inc. respects the privacy of individuals who provide us with personal information, including our customers, resellers, distributors, service providers and visitors to our website, and is committed to protect the personal information that is provided to us through our website, by email or by other means. This privacy policy (“Policy”) describes our personal information handling practices.

This policy applies to users visiting the site <https://www.cornet.com> in its entirety. We might send the information collected to our subsidiaries in Germany, Japan, and India. The data handling at our subsidiaries conform to our privacy policy, and in no way shared with third parties for promotional or marketing purposes.

Information Collected and Used

Personal information means any information that may be used to identify an individual. This is taken through user contact forms.

Following details (all not mandatory) may be collected by Cornet Technology, Inc. when a user registers on the website to use our resources.

- First Name
- Last Name
- Nick Name
- Email ID
- Website
- Google+
- Twitter
- Facebook Profile
- Biographical Information
- Company Name
- Address
- Phone Number
- Area of Interest

This information is used to better provide information and services or to comply with various national, state, provincial or local governmental reporting requirements. In each case, we only collect personal information that we believe to be relevant and required to provide an individual with requested information and services and/or to conduct our business. We do not collect any financial information like credit cards, bank details, etc. from any user for purpose of our business.

By way of example, we may collect personal information for the purposes set forth below:

- Accessing of white papers, data sheets, etc. (Note: once you have registered you may visit at any time using your password and user ID.)
- Participation in marketing promotions
- Participation in trade shows, seminars, training courses, or events
- Career opportunities
- User surveys
- Responding to an inquiry
- Providing technical support

In addition, when accessing certain documents on our website or during other marketing activities, visitors may be asked to provide certain information, such as how they can be contacted, their company, and job title. We may also track non-personal information about the web pages and content accessed by visitors at the Cornet Technology website and the number of times such content is accessed by a visitor. Cornet Technology collects this non-personal information in an effort to better meet the needs of visitors to its website and to improve delivery of information to visitors of the website.

Notice and Ability to Opt-Out

Cornet Technology provides individuals who elect to receive electronic or other communications the ability to 'opt-out' of those communications by sending us a notice to unsubscribe. Cornet Technology respects your wishes and will discontinue communicating with individuals who have requested not to receive email or other communications from Cornet Technology. This means we assume an individual has given us consent to collect and use his/her personal information in accordance with this Policy unless the individual has taken affirmative action to indicate that he/she does not consent, for instance by clicking or checking the appropriate option or box at the point of collection. In some cases, when applicable, Cornet Technology will provide an individual with the opportunity to 'opt-in'. This means that we will require affirmative action from the individual to indicate his/her consent before we use personal information for purposes other than the purpose for which the personal information was submitted.

Sharing, Disclosure and Security of Personal Information

If an individual chooses to provide Cornet Technology with personal information, the personal information will be used solely by and transferred only to Cornet Technology, its offices and subsidiaries as applicable, and its resellers and distributors which are those companies contracted by Cornet Technology to deliver requested information and services. All such entities are governed by this Policy or are bound by appropriate confidentiality agreements.

An individual's personal information is not shared outside Cornet Technology without permission.

We will also disclose personal information if required or permitted to do so by law, or in urgent circumstances, to protect personal safety, the public or our websites.

Cornet Technology safeguards the security of the personal information and other data provided to us with physical, electronic and managerial procedures. While we strive to protect personal information, we cannot ensure the security of the personal information provided to us. We urge individuals to protect their personal information when using the Internet by, for example, changing passwords often, using a combination of letters and numbers and making sure to use a secure browser.

Use of Cookies

A cookie is a text-only string of information that a website transfers to the cookie file of the browser on your computer's hard disk so that the website can remember who you are. A cookie will typically contain the name of the domain from which the cookie has come, the "lifetime" of the cookie, and a value, usually a randomly generated unique number. When you visit our website, we send you a cookie. Cookies may be used in the following ways:

- To help us recognize you as a unique visitor (just a number) when you return to our website, to allow us to tailor content or advertisements to match your preferred interests, or to avoid showing you the same advertisements repeatedly.
- To develop leads for our internal sales group and our business partners and provide direct marketing communications to you if you have explicitly consented to receive such communications.
- To compile anonymous, aggregated statistics that allow us to understand how users use our site and to help us improve the structure of our website. We cannot identify you personally in this way.
- To protect the security of our website.

Two types of cookies may be used on this website: session cookies (which are temporary cookies that remain in the cookie file of your browser until you leave the site) and persistent cookies (which remain in the cookie file of your browser for much longer, though how long will depend on the lifetime of the specific cookie).

Disabling/Enabling Cookies

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies by modifying the settings in your browser, as well as delete any cookies that have been installed in the cookie folder of your browser. However, you may not be able to use all the interactive features of our site if cookies are disabled/deleted. If you do not know how to disable or delete cookies for the browser you are using, you should select 'cookies' in the Help function of your browser to get more information.

Children and Privacy

Our website do not target and are not intended to attract children under the age of 13. Cornet Technology does not knowingly solicit personal information from children under the age of 13 or send them requests for personal information.

Third Party Sites

Cornet Technology's website may provide links to other third party websites which are outside our control and not covered by this Policy. We encourage you to review the privacy policies posted on these third party websites.

Changes to Our Privacy Policy

Cornet Technology may amend this Policy from time to time. If we make significant changes that affect the way we use your personal information, we will notify you by posting a revised statement on this site.
